

Jouef & Champagnole

Jouef from Champagnole

The Cité du Train celebrates its 20th anniversary this year, time to report again on some news in the TEE area <sup>1</sup>. Especially about Jouef.

Jouef is a French brand of model trains and road circuits, created in 1944 by Georges Huard in Champagnole, in the Jura department. After having been a leading brand of model trains in France, Jouef became a distribution brand of the British group Hornby in October 2004.

The models are of enormous authenticity, details and quality, for example my favour CC 6515.

Jouef-39 has held its third JOUEFISSIMO fair and exhibition on April 8 and 9, 2023, at the Salle de l'Oppidum in Champagnole, the town that was the historic birthplace of the Jouef brand.

The fair is open to professionals and individuals, who will offer only model railroading items for sale, including items from the entire Jouef production line. Exhibitors will showcase their railroad layouts or other creations related to model railroading in general.

I was there at Champagnole in a train called Ligne des Hirondelles:

Jouef Station Champagnole

In addition to power supplies, Jouef has introduced into its range boxes for controlling points and switches as well as a bi-stable relay allowing automation. In addition to power supplies, Jouef introduced into its range boxes for point control and switches allowing the creation of a network control console. A bi-stable relay allows for automation. From 1974, the references moved to 4 digits.

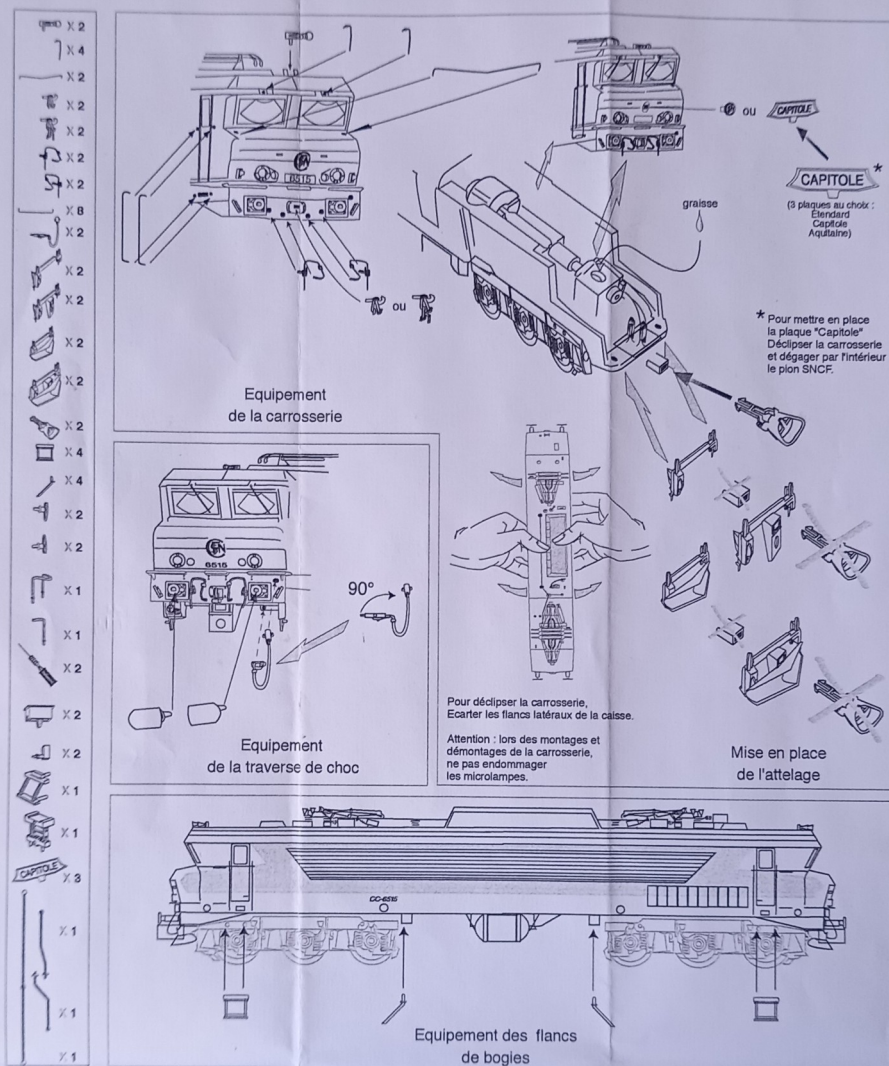

These are also models from the French Jouef catalog and decorated specifically for export markets at the request of importers, or redecorated at the special request of certain French retailers or various companies for promotional purposes. Jouef also produced special series for its own needs and series intended for collectors through a dedicated subsidiary.

Let's stay with the CC 6500 and switch to the H0 scale. Jouef H0 is launching the SNCF electric locomotive CC 6526 in Era IV. This special model celebrating 80 years of Jouef comes in an attractive box (anniversary box).
